Many thanks to

What's happening in school next week?

- Well who knows but let's hope it's an easier one than this week!

A proper newsletter will resume next week but for the time being....

- We have some new Nursery children joining us next week. They have visited this week and really enjoyed their time so they, and we are looking forward to them starting.
- We have a new colleague starting with us on Monday. Her name is Miss Kerstin Schroeter. She will be working as a Teaching Assistant in Nursery. We are really looking forward to working with her; she is a trained Speech and Language Therapist. How lucky are we?
- We have welcomed Mair into Class 8 this week. She has settled in brilliantly and we are so pleased she's come to join us. She knows lots about lots and has already made some lovely friendships. Milo has also joined us in Nursery. He's come in as if he's been here for months. He's enjoying being here and we're enjoying having him.
- To support remote learning, and to keep in touch with the children, I will share a story with each class and bubble each week via zoom. The login details will be on your child's Weekly Home Learning Timetable. I am also going to listen to some children read, again, to keep in touch with them and 'do my bit.' I'm starting with those children who are learning at home in Class 1 next week. I'll send zoom invites out individually.

Thank you

Many thanks to parents who have supported school this week in so many ways.

For lots of reasons, it has been the trickiest week for school leaders, teachers and support staff since the pandemic began.

We have grappled with decision making with no guidance, trying to balance the needs of children, staff and parents to develop a plan that is safe, workable and fair.

Staff have worked relentlessly this week to put in place new plans and ways of working so that from Monday we can offer a great education to those here and those at home. It has left us feeling anxious at times, frustrated and tired. Next week will not be perfect by any stretch of the imagination but we will do our best. We may have technology glitches, so please bear with us.

Thank you for the supportive comments, emails and messages. When times are hard it is these that keep us going.

Here's to a relaxing weekend, a week where Boris and Gavin keep their thoughts to themselves, where the sun shines and the snow stays away.

Who has celebrated their birthday since our last newsletter?

Max Briggs, Zac-Riley Evison, Reggie Griggs, Ahrea Bowen, Alivia Hinchcliffe and George Pedlar, Mrs Darnill and Mrs Taylor.

We hope you all had a lovely birthday.
