Remote Learning & School Learning

Week 7

Some highlights.

Your name

Key words

Well done Rhys for practising your keywords. Keep it up buddy!

Sequencing the story

More great work from Harley Tollan. He's been a trouper through this lockdown.

Shape work...

On the carpet, with your pencils. Brilliant.

Great Science

No test tubes or chemicals needed. Just a stone and a beady eye! Well done on the bug hunting Max.

Wow

This is Ruby's amazing digital drawing. Well done Ruby.

Team work

They had great fun making an ant hill. Look at the concentration on their faces.

Holiday baking.

This looks delicious. I think we have a master baker in our midst.

Bog Baby writing

WJCE 2 2011 WJCE 2 Respond to text & develop the story
SC1 can describe the creature and use "because" to extend my sentence

We should have gone to Annie's but we came to the Magic Pond instead. There were lots of bluebells. We fished but didn't catch a next.
We caught something better
a bog baby.

Well done Nova
She did some beautiful writing about Bog
Baby. Super neat handwriting Nova!

Super proud
A little girl thrilled to get her Mathletic certificates.

Lots of Learning...

...about fair trade on Wednesday. She put some wonderful, thoughtful comments on Seesaw.

Wonderful

Kira Fulcher is a fantastic artist. She has produced some amazing art over this lockdown.

owl preparing to fly

Super effort

James does great learning when he's in school and great learning at home too.

James again....

His efforts have been noticed twice this week by different adults. Well done James.

A little boy after my own heart

Another lover of music and singing! Yeahhhh!

Maths Whizz

Someone proud of all the maths they've done this week. Well done you!

A little teacher

Someone did their work on the whiteboard this week.
Great idea.

Very thoughtful
Emily made a get well
picture for Mrs.
Merryman. What a lovely thing to do.

Get well
soon picture

Merryman/Nannan

Making chocolate crispy cakes!

More baking

Sure they will be yummy.
It looks like you know exactly what you're doing.

Super effort

This young man has tried hard with his learning even on days when he didn't really want to. Well done fella!

Scrummy

This little girl made pizza this week, from scratch. Well done you. It looks fantastic.

Acting

This little girl acted out the story of Bog Baby using props. What a great idea. Well done.

Using Numicon

Working hard to make number bonds to 10!

Super maths

Look at the wonderful numbers bonds she's written and how neat her number formation is! Well done.

Super visualisation

of the owl from the shared reading this week. Mason has tried so hard with his home learning.

If one kind of PE fails....

...try another. Great karate moves!

Wow! Wow!

What a busy girl –
making beanstalks,
amazing writing, and
growing beans.

Super Learning

George has practised his learning every single day.

Great writing from Summer.

She joins in the phonics zooms every day.

Live chicks...

....in a phonics lesson.
Thanks Lacey-Mae. It was great for practising ck and ch!

Fun with streamers

In the spring sunshine.
What could be better?

Fabulous outdoor painting.

Two friends working together.

Lovely flower

Making pictures with shapes in Nursery and can you see those seed heads on the window sill too.
